

Table 1. ICD-10-CM definitions

Adverse effect: reaction caused by a medication correctly prescribed and properly administered.

Poisoning: reaction to taking a drug improperly.

Underdosing: reaction to taking less of a medication than prescribed or specified by the manufacturer's instructions.

Toxic effect: consequence of exposure to a nonmedicinal substance (toxin).

Source: ICD-10-CM 2018 Official Guidelines for Coding and Reporting.